Mark,

I understand from your response to Dean Hudak that you are requesting an extension of your COS case until a lawsuit challenging Dartmouth's decision to hold a COS hearing is resolved. Dartmouth will be happy to consider such a request when a lawsuit is filed, although the hearing may proceed even if you do file a lawsuit. In the meantime, we will proceed with scheduling as I advised you yesterday.

I will not be back in the office until after the holiday break. I wish you safe travels and a Happy Thanksgiving.

Sincerely,

Katharine, I can articulate why if I haven't clearly enough, but my questions and concerns are directly related to the current hearing process. I'd really love to schedule a meeting with you in person whenever you're next available to. I will probably be purchasing my flight home according to the time you provide, so I would appreciate if you let me know as soon as possible.

Mark –

I write to follow up on the messages you sent to me over the weekend and yesterday.

I hope this message clears up any confusion and helps you understand the process from here.

Current Status:

Your current status is suspended, pending a hearing before the COS. As I informed you on the 15th, I am moving forward with scheduling your hearing. If you believe you would benefit from taking a leave before your COS hearing, you may request one. There is no deadline for you to make the decision to take a leave. However, you will not be granted a leave after your hearing is held.

COS Hearing:

You will receive a scheduling letter from our office once we have confirmed a committee. I encourage you to identify an advisor. You may request that the hearing be rescheduled for good cause. However, an extension will not be granted based on your desire to wait to hear from someone that you have asked to intervene on your behalf.

Communications with President Hanlon:

You have also asked me to respond to your letter to President Hanlon. That we disagree about what has transpired is well documented and I continue to appreciate the frustration you have expressed to me and others at the College. Nevertheless, in her October 26, 2017 letter to you, Dean Biron determined that a second hearing was warranted and should be conducted. I understand that you disagree with that decision, however, we are moving forward with that process. I will not be providing a response to your letter to President Hanlon.

Conclusion

As noted above, you will receive a scheduling letter once we have confirmed a committee. Until that point, I have no further
